A small business owner and nonprofit grantwriter, she is deeply committed to strengthening rural Idaho. She serves on several boards and committees, formerly an Idaho advisor to the US Commission on Civil Rights. Trish will invest in rural communities and ensure families have the resources needed to thrive. Her priorities include expanding early childhood education, protecting Idaho's public lands, and supporting sustainable agriculture that keeps family farms strong for future generations. She is a strong advocate for restoring access to healthcare, as Idaho faces a growing crisis with providers leaving the state and families traveling long distances for essential care. Her campaign is rooted in service, community, and a vision for a stronger Idaho.

State Representative Seat B

Kenneth D Williams

Education: Bachelor Degree in Secondary Education and a Master in History, both from the University of Idaho, earned through self-funding.

Experience: I've worked at the University of Idaho since 1993. Starting as a custodian, and worked my way to foreman and now custodial training manager. I spent 16 years as a substitute teacher in the Genesee School District, working in classrooms across all grade levels during the day while working custodial at night.

Statement: I've called the Palouse home since 1993, and I grew up on a farm outside Plummer. My wife grew up in Moscow, and our daughters were raised here. This is home. I've spent my life working-on the farm, and in our schools. That's given me a clear view of what our communities need: strong schools, steady jobs, and practical leadership that understands everyday life. I will work to strengthen public education, support working families, and keep our communities strong.

DEMOCRATIC BALLOT

Legislative District 7

State Senator

Patrice Yeatter

Education: AS in Science from Nassau Community College, BA from University of Washington

Experience: Retired 30 year letter carrier with the USPS

Statement: I am running because along with many Idahoans, I am frustrated by the dismissal of many Idahoans' concerns by our current legislators in Boise. Our complaints continually fall on deaf ears and it is frustrating. We feel that legislation on important issues such as taxes, affordability, healthcare, Medicaid Expansion, housing, education, libraries and public lands has been enacted to favor the wealthy and out-of-state PACs and influencers. Those of us who dutifully pay our taxes get short changed. Founding Father, Thomas Jefferson wrote that governments derive "their just powers from the consent of the governed." We, the governed, want our power back.

State Representative Seat A

Larry Nostrant

Education: BA in Public Finance & Economics, post-grad studies in Construction Management

Experience: Journeyman carpenter, Construction Manager, Outfitter and Guide

Statement: The economic conditions and civil rights in Idaho are being severely eroded by the sitting House of Representatives. From the squandering of tax dollars to ignoring the health and financial security of seniors and the poor, the 2025/2026 legislature has blatantly and willingly thumbed their noses at every Idahoan except the wealthy and well connected. I am running a no BS/no dog whistle campaign. My position on every issue will, to the best of my ability be thoroughly researched from multiple angles. Primarily it will be guided with my constituent's input and what is best for the greatest number of my constituents. And, I will seriously explain my position to my constituents. Not at the run up to the next election, but as I develop a specific position.

Loren Beauchamp

Education: HS Graduate Nezperce High School; Associate's WWCC; Bachelor's LCSC

Experience: Local Locksmith 18 years; Operations Manager Interlink, Inc. 7 years

Statement: You may recognize Mr. Beauchamp as a friendly local locksmith unlocking your car, a helping hand at social events, a goofball at the Albertsons check-out, or as the Operations Manager at Interlink speaking about the growing retiree population of the LC Valley. A Lewiston resident since 2008, this is his first run for public office. He is running because he was asked to - by normal people - just like you. Nez Perce County deserves elected officials who show up to work, who represent the people instead of their special interests, and who aren't afraid to expose complacency. Nez Perce County is ready to let innovation and common-sense have a chance. Not MAGA, not Woke - just a moderate candidate that believes we can all do better by working together.

Experience: Worked for Nez Perce County for over 30 years, 6 years serving as your County Treasurer.

Statement: I'm a strong supporter of our local YWCA, 4-H, and FFA programs, and anything that supports agriculture and our rural community. During my 6 years as Treasurer, I upgraded our old DOS computer system with a state-funded system that came at no cost to the taxpayers. I have worked to make strong, responsible investments for the county, averaging about $1 million per year in returns and closed over 7 Public Administrator cases, helping bring closure for families and ensuring that estates were handled properly and respectfully. My goal is to serve the citizens of Nez Perce County with honesty, accountability, and strong financial stewardship. I would appreciate your continued support and the opportunity to keep working for you as your county Treasurer.

Experience: Licensed attorney in Idaho and Washington, Current Nez Perce County Clerk

Statement: As a 4th generation Idahoan, I'm still living on my family farm where my father grew up. My Idaho education and previous legal practice is invaluable for our success as your experienced County Clerk which has 5 distinct titles: Clerk of the District Court, Recorder, Election Administrator, Auditor and Clerk to the Board of Commissioners. There are hundreds of laws and rules governing every aspect of the position. Examples: who can obtain a marriage license, vote, eligibility for jury duty, calculating tax levies, payroll, payables, receivables, accessing court, passport regulation and protecting land titles. While complying with these rules and laws, I will continue to provide professional leadership through quality public service, efficient use of taxpayer money, and a cooperative atmosphere.

Assessor

Daniel J. Anderson

Education: Graduate of Lewiston High School. Attained State Appraisal License in 1981. Member of the International Association of Assessing Officers and the Idaho Association of County Assessors.

Experience: Eight years working as an appraiser for Nez Perce County, prior to my first election as Assessor. Past chairman of various committees. Current chair of the Idaho Association of Counties Valuation Litigation Fund.

Statement: I fulfilled my promise to appraise "In House", rather than hire outside an appraisal firm. Recently, I modernized the appraisal program, which has led to more appraisal productivity per employee than any county in the state. 45 file cabinets of property data are now held in our state-of-the-art program. I am also responsible to administer the Auto License Department. During the COVID crisis, I kept my office open to continue to provide excellent customer service. I am an experienced, accessible, dedicated public servant with a solid emphasis on excellent customer service.

Experience: As a paralegal with 26 years of experience fighting corruption in businesses and court systems, I am running for Nez Perce County Clerk of the District Court to restore integrity and trust in our judicial system.

Statement: My years in the field have shown me that most corruption begins within the court system itself. As your Clerk, I will make it my mission to protect the accuracy, transparency, and impartiality of every court record and proceeding. I am committed to ensuring our courts operate exactly as intended — delivering real justice for the people of Nez Perce County, not special interests. I will work tirelessly to keep corruption out and restore public confidence in our system. Together, we can return integrity to our courts.

Statement: As your current representative I have stood strong for conservatives and conservative values. I have been a voice for lower taxes, protecting property rights, helping teachers keep their pay, fighting illegal immigration, protecting your 4th and 2nd amendment rights, And shrinking bloated government Budgets. Statement: I'm a proud Wife, Mother and Grandmother who puts family first. Alongside our children and grandchildren, my husband Rocky and I enjoy experiencing all this amazing area has to offer. From camping in the Nez Perce National Forest to fishing the Clearwater River, we cannot think of a more beautiful area to call home. Like every Idaho homeowner, I am burdened by property taxes. I believe any system designed to force property owners to permanently rent from the government is unacceptable. While our legislature fails to provide tax relief to homeowners, other conservative states are making moves to eliminate them altogether. I have researched their plans and believe we can put Idaho on a trajectory of property tax elimination. Through a combination of rising homestead exemptions and fiscal constraint, we can free Idahoans from this onerous burden, while continuing to fund education and necessary public services.

My diverse background includes working in the woods, building homes, and coaching youth. Currently, I serve as the maintenance supervisor for our schools, where I utilize my skills as a jack of all trades to ensure our facilities remain safe and welcoming. I am passionate about continuing to make a positive impact in our district and supporting the needs of our families. Preserving Idaho's freedoms is one of my top priority.
